I am a Detective Constable attached to Special Branch, New Scotland Yard, SW1. On the Sunday 9 August 1970, at 1 pm I was directed by a senior officer to attend a demonstration organised by coloured people to protest against alleged police oppression in the Notting Hill area. The demonstration was to commence at the Mangrove Restaurant, All Saints Road, W11. I was told that in view of the violent sentiments expressed in some of the literature publicising the demonstration it was feared that public disorder might occur. Accordingly I was instructed to take photographs of the demonstration to provide a sequential record of events should disorder ensue. I went directly to the area and joined the demonstrators at Ladbroke Grove, W11, whilst they were opposite Notting Hill Police Station. I cannot remember the exact time of my arrival but I can remember that there was a great deal of shouting and the phrase "Kill the pigs" was one of many that I heard being shouted. After some time they moved off along Ladbroke Grove and I followed the procession. The demonstrators were shouting and chanting a number of slogans. One particularly I remember was "The pigs, oink, the pigs, oink, we've got to get rid of the pigs oink. The demonstrators marched to this chant for some few minutes. I don't remember the exact route but I remember crossing the Grand Union Canal at the Halfpenny Steps and then walking along the Harrow Road, and then later we turned left into Portnall Road. The demonstration crossed over one junction and was approaching the next when the head of the procession stopped. I estimate that I was about ten yards back from the head of the procession on the East pavement (that is on the right hand side of the procession). Suddenly I saw a number of missiles flying through the air. There were milk bottles, pieces of brick, lumps of wood and similar debris. To me they appeared to have come from above. A general melee then ensued between the demonstrators, some of whom appeared to be fighting amongst themselves, and police. I saw three policemen struck by missiles and fall to the ground. I can also distinctly remember some of the women demonstrators crying and saying that this was not the idea at all and appealing to the other demonstrators to stop the fighting. Due to the shower of missiles all around me and fearing for my own safety as well as that of my camera I placed myself with my back to the blank side wall of a house, and when police reinforcements arrived and order was restored I left the scene. Altogether I took only 46 frames on that day, and of these only 44 are printable. I produce an album of 44 photographs, Exhibit CL/1. These photographs came from two films, one complete reel of 36 exposures and one part exposed reel of ten exposures - the remainder of this reel is left unexposed. The first reel is marked 'A' and is numbered from 2 to 37, to correspond with the frame numbers shown on the film. Frame No 1 is unexposed due to the manner that I loaded the camera. The second reel is marked 'B' and is numbered from 5 to 12 inclusive. Frames 1 to 4 were spoiled and therefore unprintable. Frames 13 to 36 were not exposed. I have the two reels of unretouched negative film in my possession and they can be produced if necessary. I have looked at the 44 photographs and I do not know the identity of any of the demonstrators shown therein. I took the photographs of people who appeared to me to be taking a prominent part in the demonstration. The pictures were taken spontaneously as situations occurred. Frames A2 to A14 were taken at Ladbroke Grove, opposite Notting Hill Police Station, Frames A15 to A37 were taken at various locations during the march and Frames B5 to B12 were taken at Portnall Road, W9.

To Detective Chief Superintendent

With reference to the attached correspondence respecting the Black Power demonstration at Portnall Road, W.9, on the 9th August, 1970, i.e. KENTISH, CRICHTLOW, GORDON and others.

On Wednesday, 22nd September, 1971, at 4.30 p.m. I attended a conference at the Central Criminal Court with legal officers from the Attorney General's Office, Treasury Counsel and legal officers of the Director of Public Prosecutions Department. Appearing for the prosecution in the above stated trial, due to commence on Monday, 4th October, 1971, are Mr. BUZZARD, Mr. RICHARDSON and Mr. HILLS of Counsel.

One of the requests made by the prosecution counsel was that a Police Officer who is conversant with the identities of the Black Power supporters be with me (Detective Inspector STOCKWELL, Kensington Police Station) during the complete trial.

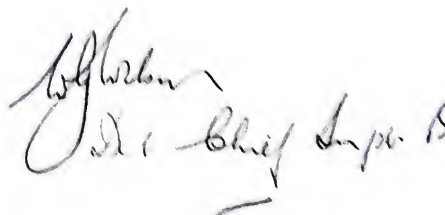

It is considered essential in order to successfully prosecute at this trial that we be aware of all of the Black Power sympathisers in order to immediately draw their relevant files and correspondence dockets for information purposes.

It is my personal opinion that Police Constable PULLEY is the Officer most conversant with the identities of these people, and secondly Police Constable PULLEY is also extremely conversant with the records kept in the various indices, New Scotland Yard, and thereby becomes even more useful to the prosecution.

I ask that this report be forwarded to the Deputy Assistant Commissioner GIBBARD (Operations) C.C.A.S. Department, requesting his permission for Police Constable PULLEY to assist me for the duration of this trial. It is anticipated that this trial will last for six weeks.
